

2023 Ambassador Interview Tips

1. Dress professionally: Dress in a professional manner for the interview as it shows respect and reflects your seriousness towards the opportunity.
2. Pay attention to your body language: Be mindful of your posture and avoid nervous ticks such as tapping fingers, looking away, or sounding nervous. These actions can be distracting during the interview.
3. Introduce yourself confidently: Make sure to introduce yourself confidently when you walk into the room. People can quickly gauge your demeanor and it's essential to show your best self.
4. Practice speaking in front of a mirror: Practice your responses in front of a mirror, and be mindful of your facial expressions and tone of voice, as they matter while speaking to the panel.
5. Research the Lewis Center Ambassadors: Research information about the ambassadors on our website and Instagram: LCERAmbassadors.
6. Learn to articulate your capabilities: explain what you have to offer and why they should choose you out of all the applicants.
7. Highlight your best qualities and passions: Briefly highlight your extracurricular activities and achievements, and showcase your dedication, time management skills, and commitment to the organization.
8. Be honest: Be honest about yourself, especially if it's a flaw you want to work on. The ambassadors don't expect perfection; instead, they seek someone who is flexible and can easily learn and take criticism.
9. Avoid cliches: Do not say your weakness is being a perfectionist or anything along those lines. Instead, be honest about your flaws and end with how you're improving that quality of yourself.
10. Share unique experiences: Display your uniqueness through rare circumstances and difficulties that showcase your skills and talents.
11. Ask relevant questions: Prepare to ask a question that displays your interest in the program and showcases your desire to learn more.
12. End with a "thank you": End the interview by thanking everyone for their time and giving you the opportunity to interview.

Good luck!
