SCE donates grant to Lewis Center

FROM STAFF REPORTS

APPLE VALLEY - The Lewis Center's foundation, High Desert Partnership in Academic Excellence Foundation Inc., was presented a $5,000 grant last week for science, technology, engineering and mathematics scholarships of college bound seniors. Nancy Jackson, Southern California Edison region manager, presented the check to Rick Piercy, president and CEO of the Lewis Center for Educational Research and Donna Siegel, foundation board member. SCE supports STEM education as vital for the next generation.
